

are SUTERS becoming Bankers?

Pretty soon Banks are going to be closed all day Saturdays. And you're going to find yourself out weekend shopping without enough cash.

So how are you going to buy your Sunday joint? Or your getaway-from-it-all tankful of petrol. And what about that evening on the town you promised yourself?

At Suters we don't sell roast beef. Nor gasoline. Though we do sell nearly everything else. But we do want to help you. And here's how.

Come along to our first floor reception desk Saturday morning or afternoon. Show us that you and your cheque book belong to each other. Then we'll cash you a cheque up to £10. Which should take care of the roast beef at least.

Of course, if you've got a credit account with us we'll cash you a cheque up to £25. And you can charge everything you buy here to your account. Which still leaves you £25 for a champagne supper.

So next time you're in, ask the receptionist for details of our credit accounts, savings accounts, revolving accounts and hire purchase plans. Together you can choose the type that best fits the bill. And we'll help you all we can.

You can bank on that.
