

SUTERS ANNUAL DINNER

The annual staff dinner and dance of Suters, Ltd., was held at the Castle Hotel, Windsor, last Wednesday.

Two hundred and forty sat down to an excellent dinner, and later the Chairman, Mr. W. C. Suter, proposed the health of the staff, which was responded to by Mr. R. A. Buggins, who has been with the firm for over 20 years.

Mr. G. A. Suter proposed the health of the visitors, which was ably responded to by Mr. Turberville Smith, M.C., who in reply stated that he had been connected with the firm in his professional capacity since 1924, and congratulated it on its great strides since its commencement at Slough in 1920.

The Chairman presented Mr. R. Sumner with a gold watch to mark 25 years of loyal service to the company, and stated that Mr. Sumner was the first person he engaged when Suters took the firm of Wm Coad, Ltd., in 1929.

Members of the staff presented bouquets to the wives of the four directors.

The dancing was to Jack Marshall's Dance Band and Mr. A. G. Reynolds was an energetic M.C.
