Staff Dinner. — About 120 members of the Uxbridge staff of Messrs. Suter's made the journey by coaches to Slough on Monday where a welcome home dinner and dance to the firm's ex-Service men was held in the Aspro Hall. Altogether 250 employees and guests, including representatives from the textile trade, were entertained as a mark of the directors' appreciation to those who had carried on during the war years as well as those who served with the Forces. Mr. W. C. Suter (chairman of the directors) presided and the toast to the returned Service men was proposed by Mr. G. A. Suter, Mr. J. L. Plumtree, one of the three oldest employees of the firm replying. The toast of the staff was proposed by the chairman, and Mr. H. Worsfold responded. Added enjoyment to a successful function was provided during dinner by Mr. Joe Pearson and Roy Howard's Collegians' dance band who also played for the dancing which followed.
