

Owen Owen buys Suters

THE Liverpool-based Owen Owen group is to take over the two Suters stores at Slough and Uxbridge. Agreement has been reached in principle for the purchase of the entire issued share capital.

Owen Owen, established 110 years ago, operates 22 stores in the UK and six in Canada. In the mid-1970s it acquired eight stores from Maple Macoward and three from Colmers.

Suters, which is a family-run business, was founded 58 years ago.

Drapers Record, June 10, 1978